CLASSIC COUNTRY’S PATSY CLINE AND FRIENDS

Monday, April 3, 2017 at the Orpheum in Sioux City

This spring show, Classic Country’s Patsy Cline & Friends is a whole lot more than a tribute to Patsy Cline. In addition to “Crazy”, “I Fall to Pieces”, & “Walkin’ After Midnight”, you will also enjoy memorable hits from the likes of Loretta Lynn, Reba McEntire and Judy Garland. C.J. Newsom and her band will take you on a sweet journey of Patsy’s life through song and storytelling besides adding songs by others to mix it up.

Also making an appearance is Terry Wayne Sanders, better known as Homer Lee. A source of unending craziness, comedian Homer Lee has been to Sioux City with us before. His routines are a wonderful reminder of the great humor that made Branson so appealing to many mid-westerners from the early 90’s on. Join us for this afternoon of celebrating the life, love, and music of legendary Patsy Cline with a little Homer Lee thrown in for good measure!

Cost for this trip is $79, which is due at sign-up and includes the Motorcoach, Driver Gratuity, Concert Ticket, and evening buffet meal at Golden Corral. Be sure to have lunch prior to trip.
